

CANYON CAMERA CLUB

The Canyon Camera Club, started in 1948, takes its name from the "Grand Canyon in the East," Letchworth State Park. The CCC usually meets the first and/or third Wednesdays, Sept. through May, in Perry, NY at the Arts Council for Wyoming County.

The CCC is one of twelve Niagara Frontier Regional Camera Clubs located in western New York, Pennsylvania, and southern Ontario, Canada. For information on the NFRCC and to find a club near you, please see: www.nfrcc.org

You don't take a photograph, you make it.
- Ansel Adams

Supported in part by a NYS Council on the Arts Decentralization Grant administered by the Genesee Valley Council on the Arts

DAY'S EVENTS

2011 Dream Day is dedicated to the founder of Dream Day, Adrian "Bud" Prince. Nov. 10, 1931- May 31, 2011

Photo Seminars
Photo Walks
Interesting Subjects

Learn how to take quality pictures and to work with digital photos. Former Kodak Ambassadors, professional photographers, and photo club members will be here to help you.

BRING OR BUY LUNCH & MAKE A DAY OF IT

The Dansville Boy Scouts will be selling hotdogs/snacks/soda. Have lunch and enjoy a full day of picture taking and learning. There is no charge for the day's activities at the Visitor Center, but donations are gratefully accepted.

Letchworth State Park is located nearby and provides boundless opportunities with the wonderful vistas of the Park, and any other activities taking place at the time. There is a Park entrance/parking fee.
